

Rosemary

Patti Cobb © 2014

6

11

17

22

27

The commission of this tune, with an accompanying dance devised by Alan Winston to follow, was offered as an auction item at BACDS's 2014 Hey Days camp, and went to high bidders Tom Colton and Ellen Simms. They requested a dance and tune dedicated to their friend Rosemary Murphree, a lovely person and long-time dancer and contributor to BACDS, in honor of her retirement from a job that kept her from spending all her time dancing, and as a special birthday gift as well. Here's looking forward to many more years of dancing with Rosemary!